The grand master was detained from being here, owing to being in Baltimore.

Following the working of the third degree, Deputy Chaffee heartily congratulated the lodge upon the excellent condition he found it in, and to Worshipful Master J. C. McPherson and the other officers he extended much praise for the excellence of the work, with which he was thoroughly pleased.

Banquet Served,

Following the work there were 175 who went to the banquet hall for the banquet, which was served by Davenport, a delightful menu being served and thoroughly enjoyed. At its conclusion Grand Secretary Havens was presented and after referring to the pleasure the occasion had given him, he referred to his trip to Cincinnati with the grand master of the state to witness the making of President Taft a Mason. He described in detail the work of the grand lodge of Ohio, and stated that while it had been circulated freely that it was the first time a person had been made a Mason at sight, that it was not so, as it has often occurred, and three have Following the work there were 175 it has often occurred, and three have been made in this state while in Pennsylvania the grand master makes one every year. In Odd Fellows' hall on Wednesday evening, Hope Rebekah lodge, No. 21, had a gala occasion in entertaining some of the state officers, who wer making the annual visitation, and also the members of Hope Rebekah lodge of Westerly, who had been specially invited and were present to the number of 47, headed by their vice grand, Mias Jean Grant, who took the place of the noble grand. The state officers present were the state president, Mrs. Emma Lyons Nettleton of South Manchester; the state vice president, Miss Clara B. M. Douglass of Forestville, and the Hope lodge deputy, Miss Jessie Emmerich of New London.

The Westerly visitors arrived by a special trolley at 7.20 and were pleasantly entertained in the lodge room until the opening of the business session, which was called to order by Noble Grand Grace Willey. The local members and the visitors filled the lodge room almost to its capacity. The visiting state officers were introduced with appropriate honors, and were then entertained by witnessing the degree work by the local team. There were two candidates, one having been balloted upon at this meeting, and they were worked in full form by the degree team under the direction of Margaret Hart. The work was done with precision and impressiveness, winning the general commendation of the visiting officers of the state grand lodge.
